

Billie Wildrick, MUSICAL ROYALTY

When she sings, she sweeps us off our feet. In case we didn't already know Billie deserved to be treated like a princess, she proved it by playing an endearingly befuddled Cinderella in the 5th Avenue's production of Into the Woods. If there really is a Prince Charming out there who's left Billie single, he needs a new pair of glasses.

SINGLE IN SEATTLE

WHAT'S THE BEST PART OF YOUR JOB?

I love the continual discovery of a song. People feel safe hiding their most personal truths in music, and I love being entrusted with finding and illuminating those emotions.

WHAT'S YOUR PROUDEST ACCOMPLISHMENT?

My new Seattle undertaking: creating a repertory music theater company to generate full-scale experimental and cabaret work.

WHAT DO YOU LIKE MOST ABOUT LIVING IN SEATTLE?

Seattle is so green and clean and beautiful. It all gives me perspective, keeps me from getting too stressed out.

FINISH THIS SENTENCE: "I'M LOOKING FOR SOMEONE WHO..."

...deliberately practices compassion and kindness, is concerned with their own evolution, thinks I'm funny, and is brave in love.

IF YOU COULD GO ON A DATE WITH ANY CELEBRITY, WHO WOULD IT BE?

Leonard Cohen. Do you think he might read this and call me?

IF YOU COULD BE ANY CELEBRITY, WHO WOULD YOU BE AND WHY?

I would never truly wish to be part of that front line of celebrity. I am terrified of mobs and cameras and being misunderstood.

ANYTHING ELSE WE SHOULD KNOW?

I have a Post-it note in my audition book that says "SHUT UP ALREADY!"
